

DAY 1 130426 THE HEALTHY SHEPHERD (Fr.EngelbertTiu)

1. The priest as a person must take his Priesthood personally.
2. A priest does not inherit his priestly personality. He acquires it by lived experience.
3. The Priesthood and the priestly ministry are not separate entities from the man of the cloth himself.
4. Remove the man, who is the priest, then his priesthood becomes a world of make believe. Compromise the essentials of the Priesthood in favor of the man behind the cassock, and his ministry will catapult towards the abyss or remorse and regret.
